

Hope You Had Happy Easter!

Here's hoping you had a Great Easter Holiday, praising the Lord for His sacrifice that we might have eternal life thru Him. Be blessed. I actually started this before Easter, but just didn't have time to complete it.

Hope you didn't put all you eggs in one basket!

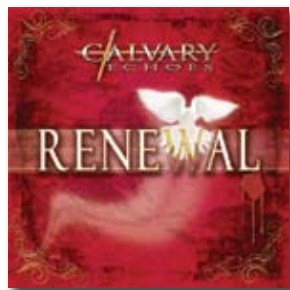

Oh What A Time!

Last weekend, the Calvary Echoes made their first trip (at least for a very long time) to Texas, Fort Worth to be exact. Saturday evening was a little tough as the Gaithers were in town, that cut the crowd down a bit, but Sunday was AWESOME! If every church we went to was like Lakeside Church of God, I would quit working and just sing. What an awesome Spirit in that place. The people there were so kind and friendly. One of those times when you meet someone and feel like you've known them forever. The Holy Spirit was so prevalent there I was getting emotional even before we got to that part of the service. Many came forward for prayer, and many tears were shed. So looking forward to going back!

CDs In The Mail

The new Renewal CDs are in the mail. In fact, you should have received yours by now. If you pre-purchased one and have not received it, please let us know as soon as possible. Thank you!

Do not anticipate trouble, or worry about what may never happen. Keep in the sunlight.

Benjamin Franklin

Anxious for Nothing

“Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God” (Philippians 4:6, NASB).

TODAY'S WORD from Joel and Victoria

So many people today are living uptight, worried and anxious about the future, filled with frustration and concern. In the natural there may be good reason, but understand, that is not God's best. God doesn't want us to live in anxiety and frustration; He wants us to live in peace. You can find rest in Him knowing that no matter what is happening around you, God Almighty has His hand on you.

The next time you're tempted to worry or be anxious about something, remember this verse. God invites us to come to Him. In fact, the Bible says He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. But notice, we can't just come to Him any old way. He wants us to come to Him with a heart of gratitude and thanksgiving. Begin by simply saying, “Father in heaven, thank You for the privilege to come before You. Thank You for hearing my prayers.” As you come to Him with an open and humble heart, He will hear you and fill you with His peace and joy all the days of your life.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Heavenly Father, today I choose to be anxious for nothing. I choose to set aside my worries and concerns. I thank You for Your faithfulness to meet every need in my life. In Jesus' Name. Amen.
