

The Fourth of July, Come and Gone...

I trust you all had a great Fourth of July! We wore our flag shirts and sang the National Anthem for the Church of the Nazarene in Freemont, Nebraska. Bill and David gave a seminar on how not to light fireworks, and have some "Holy Shirts" to prove their capabilities. Luckily, only the shirts they had on were burned. Meanwhile Mark, Dale and I celebrated by going to bed early. I hope your holiday was fun and safe.

Ice Cream Heaven

A few weeks ago we did a service in Lamars, Iowa. Home of Blue Bunny Ice Cream! We stopped in the soda fountain for some fine malts and sundaes. That was awesome on a hot day in Iowa. Ken really likes his ice cream!

Introducing David Carter, Tenor

Hi everybody! My name is David Carter. I am really excited about this ministry opportunity with the Calvary Echoes. A little bit about me: I accepted Christ in 1979 at the age of 14 1/2. I grew up in Iowa, but moved to Missouri during my college years. I have been singing solos in church since the age of six. I feel that all things happen in God's time. I felt called to the ministry in my teens but never totally figured it out until later in life. It really allows me to appreciate the opportunity more now. I take nothing for granted.

HOT ONE IN THE PARK

A few weeks ago we sang outside in Independence, Kansas, and let me tell you, it was HOT!! Here is a photo of us waiting to get started...

Dale is somewhere in the shade talking to someone. The seating was all in the sun, so except for Bill and 2 or 3 other brave souls, everyone was up under the trees. It was like we were singing to no one, while melting in the sun. We drank some water that day!
