

National Day Of Prayer

Thursday night, the Echoes sang at the National Day of Prayer service in Newton, KS. Phil Kline, former Kansas Attorney General, was the speaker. He was more of a preacher than a speaker. His message talked about our relationship with the Lord. How some use the Lord when problems arise, but tend to put Him on the shelf when things are going well. We need to spend time to make our relationship a good one. It takes time to build a good relationship, and you'll get out of it what you put into it.

Just When You Think You're Not Getting Thru..

Sometime we wonder if our music is reaching those that need it. Sunday in Holden, Mo., a young lady, 15 years old began to cry as we sang. She is struggling with life, and God is working on her. We are praying for her to find the Lord, and let Him help her with the difficulties she faces.
